Sir ROBERT WALPOLE's Recovery from his late Indisposition.

WAKE from Silence, friendly Muse!
Resume the long-abandon'd Lyre;
deign, O WALPOLE! to pursue
hat Truth and grateful Joy inspire:
candid Smiles approve the Lay,
honest Briton ought to pay.

n late you felt the weak decline,
our precious Balm of Life impair'd)
worthy Briton seem'd to join deep Concern and due Regard.
arty Jars suspended hung,
Walpole dwelt on ev'ry Tongue.

, when a gath'ring Storm appears,
hile ungrateful Murmurs cease;
wisely, then, the Pilot steers,
e stubborn Mariners confess.
fe and Friends are valued most
n on the Verge of being lost.

ew the Atlas of our State,
whom its Opulence depends,
Wise, the Good, the Just, the Great,
rrounded by despairing Friends;
fure! might well alarm our Fears,
melt a Nation into Tears.

t less than his distinguish'd Name,
u'd now transact our grand Affairs?
knows th' Extent of ev'ry Claim,
d sounds the Depth of publick Jars.
fe Life (ye Sons of Envy learn!)
mes a National Concern.

granted!---- Britons raise your Voice,
d join the Muse in grateful Song,
ev'ry honest Heart rejoice,
t dumb be each malicious Tongue.
Contrast here! No mean Alloy, disconcert our Flow of Joy.

That Health may crown his future Days,
Propitious Fate, our Hopes insure,
A Pile of lasting Fame to raise,
And Britain's Happiness secure;
Great GEORGE's Counsels to support,
And long adorn the British Court.

Such are the Hopes of gen'rous Love;
In such all honest Britons join;
Such Heaven, doubtless, will approve;
And such shall lastingly be mine.
Ye Gods! propitiously attend,
And guard secure the publick Friend.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Exon, Nov. 3. Large Quantities of Tea and other valuable Goods (Part of the Cargo of the Dutch India Man, lost off the Praul-Head the 20th of last Month) have been taken up along Shore from Exmouth to Beare. Her Cargo, by Report of the Captain, was worth near 250,000 l. Sterling, Part of which consisted in Diamonds; one of the Boxes in which they were contained, being by the Captain delivered to a Countryman, the Fellow had the Modesty to march off with the same, and has not been since heard of.

A Man is committed for stealing Iron from the said Ship, who has given in a List of a great Number concerned in those vile Practices.

Bristol, Nov. 4. The Colliers of Kingswood were pleased last Thursday to shew a little more of their ungovernable Authority, by rising to a considerable Number, with Fire Arms, Clubs, &c. going from Pit to Pit, threatening to stop up such of their Brethren therein, who did not come up and join their Number. The Reasons they give for appearing in this hostile Manner, was to prevent the Justices, who were met at the Lamb-Inn without Lawford's-Gate, from examining into the Damages they had committed in their last Rout, and to prevent the injured Persons from making their Appeal, in order to be satisfy'd for the Damages they had sustained, who were appointed that Day to attend the General Meeting for that Purpose: But another Cause to second this was, one Powell, a Pitman, concerned in the last Rupture, being apprehended by Stratagem, on Wednesday Night, and committed to the County Bridewell, whom they were resolved to rescue, and would have certainly attempted it, had they not made too much Noise before-hand, and threaten'd to pull the Prison down, as also the Lamb-Inn, were the Justices where assembled, about Ten o'Clock in the Morning.

The Reports of this reaching the Magistrates Ears, both of the City and County without, for the Gloucester Division, the Drums of Brigadier Harrison's Regiment beat to Arms, and a Company appeared presently before the Council House, who, at Twelve o'Clock, with Sir Abraham Elton in his Chariot before them (attended by some of the City Officers) marched by Beat of Drum without Lawford's-Gate, and Centries were immediately placed at the Prison Door, and the rest of the Company were planted opposite in the New Inn under Arms.

By one o'Clock almost all the Regiment, by Companies, followed by Beat of Drum, every Soldier's Piece being loaded with a Brace of Balls, in order to give the Colliers warm Reception had they been so bold to come in their Way: But not liking a Red Coat, or the Smell of Gunpowder, they thought it their best Way to keep at a proper Distance.

For the more Expedition to supply the Regiment of Soldiers with Gunpowder, several Barrels were sent for from the Magazine at Tower-Harris.

The Military Discipline having a little frighten'd them; which, had they opposed, certainly many of them would have been killed or wounded, and to be sure some brought to an untimely End; by Five o'Clock most of the Soldiers returned into the City again, leaving behind them a Captain and 50 Men to watch their Motions.

But to keep the Collier taken Prisoner more securely, 18 Soldiers were posted within the Prison, two Centries without, and the main Body over-against them in the New-Inn Yard. Centries were also planted at the Lamb Inn, where the Justices and Officers of the Regiment gave their Attendance all Thursday Night; the Constables of the Hundred being on Duty at the same Time.

The Magistrates of the City were also assembled late in the Council-House, and the Constables order'd to be ready at a Minute's Warning.

Yesterday the Justices still continued their Meeting both in City and County; and the better to oppose the Colliers from fulfilling their Threatenings, a large Detachment of Soldiers marched into Kingswood in search of those against whom Abundance of Informations are made, with Orders absolutely to Fire on the Colliers if they made any Opposition; but instead of that they took to their Heels and fled out of the Wood; and the Soldiers in searching their Houses, seiz'd what Fire Arms they could find, and made one Samuel Wilmot, a noted Ringleader, Prisoner, who they brought to accompany the other Collier in Bridewell.

A Grand Inquest of the Gentlemen of the County, attended the Justices Yesterday at the Lamb-Inn, in order to levy the Damages on the several Hundreds; and tho' the Colliers threaten the Lives of such who attempt to make their Complaints of the great Injuries done them, yet enough have come in, and several are afraid to return to their Habitations for fear of being murder'd, expecting hourly to hear of their Houses being pull'd down and plunder'd.

'Tis thought the Colliers have now gone their full Length; those Outrages having so incens'd the Government, that in all Likelihood their Obstinacy will end in the fatal Ruin of many of them and their Families.

All the Coal-works in Sir Isaac Newton's, and several other Royalties, are stop'd from working. Four Pits are filled up at White-Hill, near the Cupola's, and the Carts, Reels, Ropes, and other Utensils, cut and burnt, belonging to Larry Price. Five other Pits are also filled up at Sison's Bottom, and the Utensils destroyed, belonging to Jerom Ford, George Riddle, Charles Tippet, and Henry Monk. Some sav'd their Pits by giving Money. This was done at their first Rising. Last Thursday they cast a great many Bullets at Grimsbury, and fired divers Times to bring their Arms in Tune, as they said, against they went to War.

On Monday his Majesty's Birth-day was observed here with extraordinary Rejoicings; the Bells Ringing all the Day; the Soldiers firing in the Square; and in the Evening the Company of Grenadiers fired a Volley at every Loyal Health drank by the Corporation, the Officers of the Regiment, and other Gentlemen; and the Evening clos'd with Bonfires, and other Rejoicings suitable to the Occasion.

The only ſhort and infallible Cure

For that reigning Diſeaſe the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the higheſt and moſt inveterate Degree, or of ever ſo many Years ſtanding, and that without any ſenſible Evacuation or the leaſt Purging, which by an unaccountable Miſtake is generally adviſed, although always found rather to increaſe and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the leaſt Trouble, Confinement, or any Diſorder whatever, do at once ſtrike at the true Cauſe of the Scurvy, and intirely deſtroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, ſo as never to return again, as many Thouſands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced; for they almoſt inſtantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, ſweeten all the Fluids, cleanſe them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Wearineſs of the Limbs languid Heavineſs of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakneſs of the Back, and all the vaſt Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatiſm, and many other Diſtempers.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages (whence proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indiſpoſitions) no Bitters nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inſomuch that beſides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they alſo effectualy and immediately cure the Green-ſickneſs in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almoſt all other Chronick Diſeaſes, (which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illneſſes.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reſtorative, ſtrengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and aſſoon as taken, make the Patient pleaſantly Lightſom, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Perſons, to preſerve as well as to procure a ſound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation theſe ſomuch fam'd and pleaſant Chymical Drops have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Eminence, for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy and agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, ſome under the ſame, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be ſure to have the Right, which by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's, at the Two Blue Poſts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
